

Pioneer Center for Human Services leads effort for #McHenryCountyGives

This year, Pioneer Center is excited to be working with local governments to launch #McHenryCountyGives. Inspired by #GivingTuesday, the day is a local effort that harnesses the collective power of charities, families, businesses and individuals to transform how people think about, talk about and participate in the giving season.

Led by Pioneer Center for Human Services, #McHenryCountyGives takes place on December 1, 2015 in correlation with #GivingTuesday. Coinciding with the Thanksgiving holiday and the kickoff of the holiday shopping season, #McHenryCountyGives inspires people to take action to improve McHenry County, give back in better, smarter ways to the charities they support and help create a better community.

Whether you visit www.pioneercenter.org/donate or the website of another local nonprofit, Pioneer Center encourage McHenry County residents to join the #McHenryCountyGives movement this holiday season. You learn more about this day of giving by contacting Marilou Niggemann, Marketing and Communications Coordinator with Pioneer Center at mniggemann@pioneercenter.org. At this time of year, nonprofit organizations across the area need your help. On December 1, and throughout the month, we encourage you to make a difference in our community.
