The Board of Commissioners met to discuss the applications received as a result of the ads placed in the area newspapers for possible "lateral hires" by the Richmond Police Department. It was agreed that the Board will begin conducting oral interviews starting on Monday, May 18, 2015 to expedite the possible hiring of experienced police officers, currently or previously employed as officers. The interviews will begin at 2pm and will be finished by 6pm. Successful candidates will be eligible for additional testing.

Since the Board has been meeting more frequently, it has decided to meet each month on the 1st Monday, at 2pm as a regular day and time. Meetings will continue to be posted on the village web site to provide exact date and location.
